Decision by Court.	,
IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREE time and would not grid out if found to be able only	1

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that plaintiff is 49 years old at the present time and would not grid out if found to be able only to perform sedentary work. The ALJ found that she could perform light work with exceptions. The record in this case establishes that there is substantial evidence to support the ALJ's finding that she can do light work and that the limitations are reasonable and appropriate. Plaintiff had severe impairments of degenerative disorders of the lumbar spine and neck, obesity, depression, bipolar and related disorders, and post-traumatic stress disorder. The ALJ found that plaintiff's past relevant work was as an administrative clerk, a receptionist, a paralegal, a child monitor, and an interpreter. The ALJ found she could perform light work with exceptions. This finding is supported by substantial evidence. The decision of the ALJ is affirmed.
